FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FIVE BUSINESS LEADERS JOIN THE RESOURCE PARTNERSHIP BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Boston, Massachusetts, November 20, 2001 – The Resource Partnership welcomes five talented new board members from diverse backgrounds in the business community.

James V. Aulenti, Robert Fine & Associates, Framingham, MA; Constance Dery, MTA Benefits, Inc., Boston, MA; Laurence E. Landrigan, A.G. Edwards, Boston, MA; Robert Webber, Tower Technology, Boston, MA; and Eileen Wynne, Norwood, MA.

The Board, chaired by Sandra Colley of John Hancock Financial Services, Boston, MA, supervises the activities of the Resource Partnership and provides valuable business knowledge to ensure the development of the organization.

“During this great time of growth for the Resource Partnership, we are proud to welcome five new members each with tremendous business expertise in Finance, Insurance, Technology, and Union Relations” said Kathleen Petkauskos, President of the Resource Partnership. “They bring the skills and knowledge required for the Resource Partnership to actualize initiatives for expansion and development.”

The Resource Partnership was established in 1978 as a statewide employer-managed membership organization dedicated to advancing the career potential of individuals with disabilities. Services provided to the hiring employer include individualized attention and consideration to specific business needs, referral of pre-screened, qualified job candidates, post-employment follow up, assistance with determining and providing accommodations and accessing tax credits, and opportunities to meet and network with other businesses and agencies through Business Advisory Councils and networking events.
